The workman lays them one by one and builds the foundation of a beautiful edifice, a mighty bridge, a church, a home, a school.

So we have worked to construct the foundations of our lives with bricks of thought and mortar of conscience. So we shall continue to build our minds and souls with the hope of completeness, striving to make ourselves a part of progress.

Upper Arlington

Months of planning by the Board of Education, the administration, and the builders were necessary before the building of the new senior high school could be started. A 38-acre tract of land on the southwest corner of Brandon and Ridgeview Road was the chosen site for the new school. The ground was broken on July, 1955.

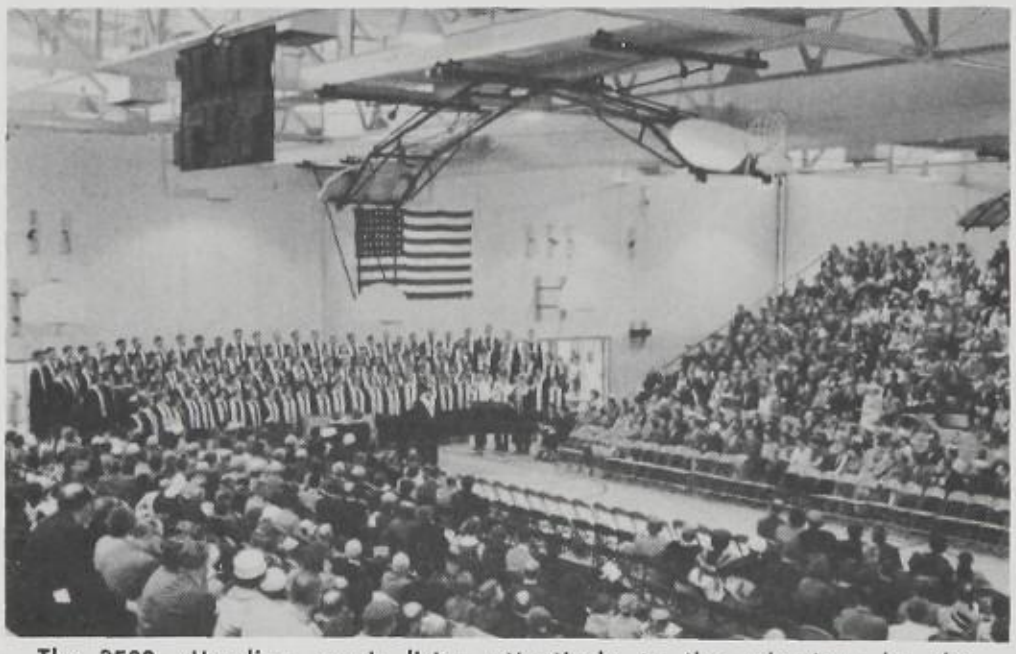
On February 24, 1957, at 3 p. m. the new building was dedicated in a formal ceremony held at the high school. The occasion was highlighted by an address by the newly elected governor of Ohio, the Honorable C. William O'Neill. Twenty-five hundred people attended the ceremony which administrators, Board of Education members, contractors, class officers, and many others took part. The Senior Concert Choir and the Senior Concert Band furnished choral and instrumental music for the event.

After the dedication on Sunday there was an open house during which the school was open to viewing.

The dedication was preceded by a special banquet on Saturday, February 23, which was attended by members and ex-members of the Board of Education, Chet Long, Mary McGarey, City-manager Cliff Ryan, and the principals of all the Arlington schools and representatives from other school systems.

With its generous facilities and modern features, our new high school building represents the greatest degree of progress. With its high quality of construction it illustrates the citizens' concern for the welfare of their youth. With its excellent faculty and administrators it offers the opportunity for a sound high-school education.

Mrs. R. J. Lund, vice-president of the Board of Education, welcomes parents, teachers, and students to the Dedication Program. Governor C. William O'Neill and Superintendent Walter B. Heischman are seated to her left.



The 2500 attending guests listen attentively to the selections by the Senior Concert Choir under the direction of Herbert Yenser.

Presenting the key to the school to Principal Joseph A. Dorff and Mike Fitzgerald are E. E. Barnett, Timothy Armstrong and Dr. Ralph Licklider.

Superintendent

Walter B. Heischman

Superintendent Walter B. Heischman was born in New Albany, Ohio, where he attended high school. He earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in 1932 at Capital University. While he was at Capital, he also participated in football, basketball, and baseball. In 1940 he received his Master's Degree from Ohio State University, majoring in school administration.

After teaching science and coaching basketball first at Willard High School and later at Upper Arlington, Mr. Heischman entered the Navy. He returned to Arlington in 1946 and a year later became principal of the Barrington Elementary School. Since 1951 he has served as Superintendent of the Upper Arlington school system.

"The opening of our new high school represents a change in the organization of our secondary schools in which the junior high and senior high schools are now separated. This makes it possible to provide a much better educational program for the young people of our community and to direct attention in the extra-curricular activities as well as the academic areas.

"It is pleasing to note the fine spirit and attitude developed in our staff and the student body during the short existence of our new school. We can confidently look forward to more growth and improvement in the years to come, including additional elementary schools and another junior high school."

Principal

Joseph A. Dorff

Principal Joseph A. Dorff, a graduate of Ohio State University who holds an A.B., a B.S., and an M.A., began his teaching and administrative career 26 years ago at a small country schoolhouse in Belmont County. For three years he was an elementary school principal, and he was a high school principal for 11 years in Shadyside and in Wooster, Ohio. In 1951, the first year of Mr. Heischman's superintendency, Mr. Dorff came to Upper Arlington. He sees the recent changes in the structure of the Upper Arlington school system as a definite improvement.

"I believe very strongly that the reorganization of the high school into a junior-senior high school organization will produce educational dividends that were not realized in the six-year high school. Student interests and activities can be more closely related and geared to the student groups concerned since the age span will be cut in half in both cases. The senior high school should be able to accomplish more with the excellent physical facilities that we have for our use. A modern building that affords a fine library, science laboratories, special areas and modern classrooms should go far in improving the quality and character of the learning that goes on within its walls."

The race was on, and the faculty, administrators, office staff, and maintenance men were coming into the home stretch. Everyone was rushing to have the new high school ready before the invasion of 645 students on September 17.

In this urgent situation martial law was declared, and every available vehicle on four wheels was confiscated to be used for transporting classroom equipment, books, and personal belongings from the junior high building.

When the migration had been successfully completed, the pioneers of Upper Arlington still had many perils and hardships to face. Even if a teacher escaped walking under a painter's ladder, tripping on loose wires, or falling down a hole, the flies and the frigid temperature were sure to finish him. Yet out of such mean beginnings arose our own nation; let us, therefore, give tribute to the men and women who braved the Ridgeview Frontier in the cause of education.

As builders of spirit and tradition in our new school, the class of 1957 was led by President Frank Dunbar, Vice-President Rick von Haam, Secretary Ann Armstrong, and Treasurer Dave Peterson. They were assisted by the Student Council representatives from the Senior Class, Jim Nicklaus, Jack Saeger, Roger Holstein, Willie Huck, Bob Butler, and Bob Wandel.

Not only was this the first class to be graduated from the new building, but also the first to purchase class rings and to be spared "term paper blues." Early in the school year the rings were ordered under the supervision of a class committee.

Work on the Norwester began prior to the opening of school, under the direction of Editor-in-Chief Harold von Ulmer and the yearbook adviser, Miss Vera K. Randall. The Pfeifer Printing Company was engaged to handle the printing and the Tri-Village Studio the photography. In order to finance the annual publication, the seniors ardently pursued the usual money-making projects, including the solicitation of Boosters' Club memberships, bake sales, selling pompoms at football games, operating the basketball concessions, and the advertising sales campaign.

Queen Sally Bell and her court—Nancy Brown, Mary Beth Lutz, Mary Ward, and Judy Wilson—reigned at the Homecoming festivities on October 25, when Arlington defeated Bexley. A dance sponsored by the senior class followed the victorious battle.

The class really discovered how it felt to be seniors when they were suddenly choosing announcements and being measured for caps and gowns, and were faced with the decision of where to hold the Commencement ceremony. Senior Day, Baccalaureate, and finally graduation completed the path of traditions, continued and added to by the class of 1957.

With the financing of the Junior-Senior uppermost in its collective mind, the already prosperous class of '58 launched its junior year.

The football concession proved to be a profitable means of income. Upper-classmen smiled sympathetically as juniors hawked their cokes, coffee, and popcorn at the stadium. On November 3 a successful paper drive was climaxed with a spaghetti dinner held at the Barrington School Cafeteria.

Basketball fans again received the advantage of a coat check at the home games. For ten cents the ambitious juniors helped support their class by checking wraps. They also sponsored dances after the Bexley and Huntington basketball games. These activities combined to promise the junior class enough funds for a highly successful Junior-Senior and a good start on next year's Norwester.

At intervals a passer-by in Junior Hall could hear lines from Macbeth, snatches of chemistry laboratory reports, and recitation of dates learned for American history. None of Mr. Lutz's students will forget the Harry Belafonte records or visits from Venerable Bede and H. G. Wells.

Hank Arbaugh and Joyce Richardson made outstanding co-chairmen for the Junior-Senior. Ably assisting as committee chairmen were Artie Wolfe and Lee Hanna, construction; Katie Deeg, invitations; Mary Sturr and Dave Stevens, decorations; Craig Whitaker, band; Mary Lou Whipps, refreshments; and Don Hall, lighting.

The end of the year found various honors bestowed on class members. Student council elections, Boys' and Girls' State awards, and National Honor Society and Quill and Scroll appointments provided excitement as results were announced. Still the class of '58 had time for bake sales, a car wash, and a style show.

Ned Crockett, Dale Wade, Jo Ann Wagner, and Sue Perry served as class officers during the year. Mr. James Miller was faculty adviser.

The class of '58 had a busy, enjoyable junior year and looks forward to even more activities and accomplishments as seniors.

Here, busily at work, is the class that will forever hold the distinction of being the first to spend all three years in our new high school building, none other than the class of 1959.

To start the year off right the sophomores elected as their class officers Jerry Ross, president; Bill Pflaum, vice-president; Bonnie Bell, secretary; and Corita Hittson, treasurer. Immediately they held a paper drive to give Corita a chance to show her ability as treasurer and to get the financial ball rolling. A new twist was added to an old way of making money by having bake sales every week, each time sponsored by a different homeroom. One innovation was a doughnut sale which added more pennies to the piggy bank.

Combining frivolity with that ever-present need to build up the bank account, the sophomores sponsored a dance after a basketball game, following the pattern set by the other high school classes. Overwhelming the student body with a spring gala, an ambitious undertaking for the "babies" of the high school, the sophomores proved that they were ready to go on to the Junior-Senior next year.

Mr. William Gulden, the class sponsor, along with the various Student Council representatives, Patti Albin, Bob Jencks, Susy Armstrong, Barb Folkerth, Tom Terry, Margie Flory, Joe Arnold, and Jerry Sarver, joined forces with the class officers to direct the sophomores in their multitudinous activities.

After digesting Julius Caesar and his ambitions, the heads that fell under the guillotine, capillaries, corollaries, pluperfects, "parlez vous's," and "muchas gracias," the sophomores turned their ever-active energy toward decorating Senior Hall for Senior Day—and then they became juniors.

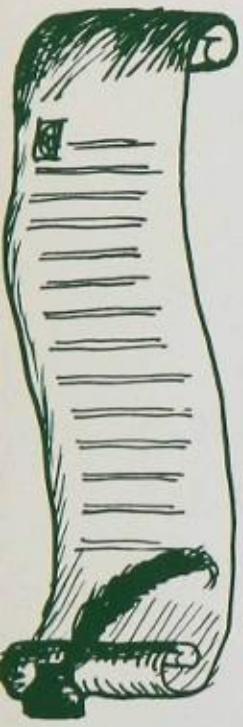
SCHOLASTICS

Quill and Scroll



Membership in Quill and Scroll the international honorary society for high school journalists, is the greatest honor one can achieve in journalistic work. Those eligible for membership must be in the upper-third of their classes based on work from ninth grade to the present year or for the present year and have a specified number of column inches of their writing printed in the Arlingtonian, or have done an equivalent amount of work in another phase of journalism. A candidate may then join Quill and Scroll with the approval of the adviser, Miss G. Ellen Mann.

Fourteen new members were initiated into Quill and Scroll at the annual candlelight induction service on March 26 in the high school Little Theatre. Dale Wade received a special award in photography. Evan Hill, associate professor of Journalism at Ohio State University and writer for the Saturday Evening Post, Readers' Digest, and other magazines, was the speaker. Sonja Wahll played a violin solo and Bob Fitzsimmons sang a vocal solo.

Officers of Quill and Scroll were Anne Wear, president; Don Gehlbach, vice-president; Jeanne Simpson, secretary; and Judy Callahan, treasurer.

National Honor Society is an honorary organization symbolizing the highest scholastic achievement a student may attain. It is composed of the top five percent of the junior class and the top ten percent of the senior class. All of these members are admitted in the spring of the school year. The club's present membership consists of Bill Cook, Mike Fitzgerald, Rick Von Haam, Dave Peterson, Frank Dunbar, Gary Lintzenich, Nancy Erb, Pat Anderson, Molly Reynolds, and Carolyn Fergus.

The only project in which National Honor Society engages is that of selling current and classical literature in the form of paper-back books. A large amount of money is turned over annually by the ever-increasing sales of these books. What small profits there are, however, are invested in more books.

This year National Honor Society elected Dave Peterson, president; Bill Cook, vice-president; and Rick Von Haam, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Ellis Lutz serves as faculty adviser.

For the first time in the history of the Upper Arlington Senior Scholarship Team, the seniors took the test in our own high school. On Friday, January 18, 1957, the upper forty percent of the senior class marched into room 105 and spent two and one-half hours matching their wits with other seniors in the state of Ohio.

This year Upper Arlington students made a fine showing in the Senior Scholarship Test. Of the 77 students that took the test, thirty-four placed in the county, 24 in the O.S.U. district, and 13 in the state of Ohio.

As a result of their efforts, these thirteen students received honorable mention in the state of Ohio: Siegfried Storz, Denis Skora, Scott Bolz, Anne Beck, Frank Dunbar, Martin Gear, Dick Carson, Bob Young, Charles Shimp, Molly Reynolds, Dave Peterson, Mike Fitzgerald, and Dan Harding.

These lucky thirteen, as well as many others who received high grades on the test, will have scholarships awarded to them from the colleges of their choice.

ARLING

The Arlingtonian Staff inaugurated a new idea the first day of school by distributing free copies of the paper with the traditional red schoolhouse in color outline. This issue celebrated the opening of the new high school building. Many of the ideas were contributed by the nine staff members who attended the National Scholastic Press Association convention in Ann Arbor in August.

A gala outdoor assembly was held in September since the gym was not completed. Election year furnished the theme, and a parade, replete with the ex-Governor Frank Lausche and staff members in convertibles, students dressed as a donkey and an elephant, and a band, led to the parking lot where Mr. Lausche spoke. The "political rally" was successful in that 90 percent of the student body subscribed to the paper.

An Arlingtonian sponsored poll chose our "turkey kings" and "queens" from each grade for our Thanksgiving issue and their picture appeared with a background of 1000 turkeys. The Christmas issue featured a gold madonna on the first page. The February 13 issue featured the three lovely Valentine Queens and also played up the dedication of the high school on February 24.

Some of the Arlingtonian's innovations have been pictures of new students, a grade at a time, interviews with Doris Day, "Robin Hood" Richard Greene, and stories of students' European trips. The paper had the distinction of carrying an exclusive scoop on the announcement of Miss Joan Jones' engagement.

Honors won by staff members in contests sponsored by the High School Press Club of Central Ohio included a trophy to Don Gehlbach for sports writing, a second place to Hazel Neisser for feature writing and a third place by Hazel in interviewing. The editor, Sally Lund, was elected Sergeant at Arms of the H.S.P.A.C.O.

Student Council

After witnessing one of the most exciting and vigorously conducted campaigns in school history, the senior high school students elected Mike Fitzgerald as their Student Council President for the school year 1956-57.

Upon convening in September, the members of Student Council found that with the new high school came many challenges and opportunities for their organization to function more effectively and freely as a policy-making body.

Projects were undertaken with the belief that each member of the Council should have a job at all times so that he might have more personal responsibility in actively representing his homeroom or organization in Student Council. While enjoying wonderful student support and co-operation, sound leadership and teamwork, and valuable faculty advice in the person of Mr. A. J. McCullough, Student Council executed its policies with a success seldom equaled in past years.

At the outbreak of the Hungarian crisis, Student Council teamed with Leaders' Class to collect more than $1,300 for Hungarian relief through personal and organizational contributions in the high school. Other "firsts" in the new high school were the procurement of class jewelry available to the senior class, distribution of student directories by a record early date of December 1, the establishment of a student hall guide system, the meeting of Student Council during class time under period rotation, measures taken with police department assistance to relieve parking and traffic congestion around the school area, the organization of the biggest and best "Career Day" ever, with the help of Leaders' Class, the establishment of an Arlington athletic hall of fame, and the showing of top feature movies at noon in the little theater. The movies became a favorite means of noontime entertainment and proved to be a smashing financial success — something future Councils can look forward to as a source of revenue.

With the acquisition of a workable treasury, new possibilities for Student Council to be of service are presenting themselves, and although projects lie ahead, they cannot be included at this writing.

Mike Fitzgerald, President
A. J. McCullough, adviser

In completing its program of activities, the 1956-57 Student Council, whose membership follows, proved itself an outstanding organization in respect to service as the student governing body of Upper Arlington High School

J. U. G.

Organized in the spring of 1956, J.U.G. is a social organization open to any girl in the class of 1959. Approximately a hundred girls are members of the club.

Working with the Council for Retarded Children was the chief project for the J.U.G. Club during the past year. In November members of J.U.G. worked in a fund-raising drive to benefit retarded children. During the course of the year they also held several parties for these children. Other activities included a style show in April for the freshmen girls. In this way the freshmen were introduced to the values of having such a club as J.U.G. for their own class. Meanwhile, J.U.G. members were enthusiastically making plans for continuing their own club during their junior and senior years.

Shiny new pins — symbolically in the shape of a "little brown jug" — and sweat shirts were purchased by members. Spreads, dances, and chartered buses to games highlighted the year, which was climaxed by a mother-daughter banquet held in May.

Officers for the year were Roberta Simpson, president; Carol Kuenning, vice-president; Sandy McIntire, secretary; and Susie Trimble, treasurer. Miss Floa Schnell served as faculty adviser.

Martin Gear, Nancy Erb, John Bieber, Diane Miller, Carol Lloyd. Miss Margrett C. Schultz, adviser, absent.

Leaders' Class

Training potential leaders, Leaders' Class functions through committees to serve the school, community, and to promote world friendship. Its 34 members were chosen for qualities of sincerity, co-operation, initiative, dependability, service, and personal integrity.

President John Bieber, Vice-President Nancy Erb, Secretary Diane Miller, Treasurer Martin Gear and Miss Margrett C. Schultz, facutly adviser, led the committees in their numerous activities. The first City-Wide Leadership Training Conference was sponsored by the School Service Committee headed by Pat Anderson. The World Service Committee, Rick von Haam chairman, sent CARE packages overseas and along with the Local Service Committee sponsored a clothing drive. Sally Redick's Local Service Committee also held a canned foods' drive and helped a needy family. Under the direction of Molly Reynolds, the Newcomers' Committee held its annual Newcomers' Party. Carol Lloyd and her Children's Parties Committee planned two parties for underprivileged children, one at Christmas and one at Easter, and a party for elderly people on Valentine's Day. The Publicity Committee, with chairman Ann Edmondson, kept the Leaders' Class bulletin board up to date and provided publicity.

F. T. A.

For the first time at Arlington the Future Teachers of America this year included the junior high school in their cadet teaching program. Senior high school students are permitted to teach seventh, eighth, or ninth grade classes if they choose, or an elementary grade at Barrington, Tremont, or Fishinger Road Schools. Any junior or senior who is interested in the teaching profession may join F.T.A. and, if her schedule permits, may participate in student teaching one period a week.

The club had several guest speakers during the year including Mrs. R. J. Lund, from the Upper Arlington Board of Education, and Dr. Amelia Nelson.

In order to become better acquainted with the Arlington teachers, F.T.A. sponsored a tea for the high school faculty in February.

The girls served as guides at the annual P.T.A. open house in November, and at Christmas they made favors for the patients at Children's Hospital.

Ann Armstrong served as president during the year. Sally Redick, vice-president; Carol Lloyd, secretary; and Catrina Fink, treasurer, were the other officers. Mrs. Helen Tanner is adviser.

F. N. A.

The Future Nurses Association is open to any senior high girl who thinks that she might be interested in nursing as a career. Mrs. Mildred Koch, school nurse, again acted as adviser to the club. Serving as officers of F. N. A. were Shirley Smith, president; Sue Baber, vice-president; Jeanne Ritter, recording secretary; Sonja Wahll, corresponding secretary; and Jane Richards, treasurer.

After taking a tour through the Columbus State Hospital, the girls decided that they would like to work on a project for the patients there. Members collected small Christmas gifts and the club purchased a gift for one of the wards. On December 23 they sponsored a Christmas party for nearly seventy-five patients at the hospital. The girls also had an opportunity to take a complete tour of Children's Hospital and to visit Mt. Carmel Hospital.

To learn more about the different phases of the nursing profession, F. N. A. had several guest speakers at various meetings during the year.

In order to raise money to finance club projects, the Future Nurses sponsored the "Harvest Moon" dance after the St. Charles football game.

Y-Teens

The purpose of Y-Teens, a branch of the Y. W. C. A., is to build a fellowship of girls who realize the Christian ideals of personal and social living. Any girl, regardless of her race, creed, or religion, may be a member of this outstanding organization.

Under the leadership of Miss Judy Parsons, adviser, and Ginni Trott, president, the Y-Teens were kept busy with both fun and serious activities.

The fall programs were highlighted by various speakers, including a leading hair stylist, a minister, and a speaker from Ceylon.

In February the Y-Teens held a valentine party for the Y-Teens at the Ohio State School for the Blind. They also made donations to various organizations, such as UNECEF and American Federation for Overseas Blind.

Spring brought the annual Easter Assembly with the Hi-Y, a joint meeting with the Bexley Y-Teens, and a panel that discussed different religions.

The year's activities were brought to a close with the announcement of the new officers at the annual spring banquet.

Hi-Y

The most publicized activity of Hi-Y is the hilarious annual Hi-Y-Faculty basketball game. This, however, is only a small part of the activities of the club.

Leading Hi-Y as president this past year was Ed Shaffer. Other officers included Tom Schooley, vice-president; Bob Wandel, secretary; and Dave Peterson, treasurer. Mr. Dave Selby again served as adviser.

Selling programs at the home football games last fall was a traditional Hi-Y project. The group also sponsored a dance after the North basketball game. As a gesture of good will, the club as a whole donated a large sum to the Hungarian Relief Fund last December.

Perhaps the most important activity of the organization was the basketball program organized during the winter months. Two teams were set up, one composed of juniors, and one of seniors. The senior team had won the league play as juniors the previous year; all of the players from that championship team were back to attempt to repeat their triumph.

The Hi-Y enjoys one of the largest memberships of any of the clubs in the school.

The Hi-Y motto — "clean living, clean speech, clean sportsmanship, and clean scholarship" — tells the purpose of the club; through it the boys of today will become better leaders for tomorrow.

Dramatics Club

This year, with the temporary loss of our Thespians' charter, the Dramatics Club reorganized and took on new duties. In order that more people could participate in the various plays, it was decided that any student in the high school is eligible for any play, with the class sponsoring the play bearing all expense, and receiving all profit.

Officers for this year were Martin Gear, president; senior class vice-presidents, Mary Beth Lutz and Scott Bolz; junior class vice-presidents, Joyce Richardson and Dave Stevens; sophomore vice-presidents, Julie Martin and Susie Lund; treasurer, Hazel Neisser; secretaries, Patty Webster and Euretta Dixon; and Dianne Merriman, historian.

Because the "Little Theatre" wasn't completed until late in January, only two plays were presented this year. The first was The Ponder Heart by Eudora Welty, and the second was Thornton Wilder's Our Town.

Mr. Lance Shreffler, the faculty adviser, sponsored a production of his own in December—Master Bruce Shreffler.

Debate Team

"Debate is a big-time activity," stated Coach Lance Shreffler when asked about the accomplishments of this year's debate team.

An excellent illustration of Mr. Shreffler's point is a clinic which the debaters attended in early December at Ohio State University. Here 340 debaters from 62 Ohio schools took part. It is a fascinating activity, and one of the few teams open to both boys and girls.

The team participated in debates at Marysville, Port Clinton, Dayton, and Delaware. Most of the contests took place in January, with the final ones in early February.

Not all of the team members were members of the debate class; Frank Dunbar and Diane Miller were back from former years. Other debaters included Don Gehlbach, Bob Kincaid, Jo Ann Wagner, Bill Doerr, Vince Cardi, Tom Wessels, and Lee Hanna. Debate is open to any high school student.

The subject for debate this past year concerned the kind of aid which should be extended to the stricken farmers of the nation. Debaters learned arguments for each point of view and then participated in actual debates.

Library Club

Library Club enjoyed a successful year in the pleasant setting of the spacious new library. Officers for the past year included Norma Zimmer, president; Jacqueline Long, vice-president; and Linda Adams, secretary-treasurer. Miss Bernice Rea served as faculty adviser for the group.

The membership of Library Club consists of the students who assist in library work. The club is open to both boys and girls.

Duties for members include processing, shelving, and carding books, as well as keeping the shelves orderly. The display case in the hall, which offers useful scholarship information, is also the responsibility of the club.

Meetings this past year were usually held at noon. Here members learned library techniques which they put to use in their everyday work. Each member spent at least three periods a week on duty at the desk.

With the impressive new facilities, membership in Library Club proved even more interesting and enlightening this past year than it had previously. All members agreed that the new library provided an engaging atmosphere for a successful year.

Science Club

One definite evidence that the new high school had a special contribution to make to the extra-curricular program of the students was the formation of the new Science Club. With increased laboratory facilities available, more than eighty students organized to work on projects not possible during school hours. Some of these were developed in previous years' work and a project did not necessarily need to be carried on in the student's present field of study.

Meeting under the able presidency of Bill Givens, the Science Club convened on the second and the fifth Monday evenings of each six-weeks period. The science faculty, including Mr. Robert Cavins, Mr. Leon Bowman, Mr. James Lambourne and Miss Judith Parsons were enthusiastic sponsors throughout the year.

Other officers were Steve Guthrie, first vice-president, program; Chuck Rapp, second vice-president, fund raising; Sue Perry, third vice-president, membership and social; Lynne Evans, corresponding secretary; Anne Halligan, recording secretary; and Dick Carson, treasurer.

The students furnished materials necessary for all projects and each member was required to develop one special activity during the year.

Latin Club

Cicero, Virgil, Caesar, and all their Roman friends would be very pleased to know that a small club called Inter Nos is championing the cause of the Latin language and the study of ancient Greek and Roman culture at Upper Arlington High School. Inter Nos, whose name means "Among Us," has been in existence only three years and is limited to students who have completed two or more years of Latin.

Meetings, under the supervision of Miss Margrett Schultz, are held once each month in the advanced Latin class. Consisting mostly of games, songs, and reports, these meetings are designed to acquaint the members with the past through pleasant and enjoyable experiences.

Two seniors, Joyce Teegardin and Ann Edmondson, served the club as president and treasurer, respectively, with the help of Vice-President Craig Whitaker and Secretary Janie Eaker.

Each year, in addition to publicizing Latin Week, Inter Nos holds a party for prospective advanced Latin students from the sophomore class. Attending the Junior Classical League's annual state convention in the spring is another important event. Mike Fitzgerald is second vice-president of the Ohio J.C.L.

El Dorado

For the past several years, the Spanish Club at Upper Arlington has been turning into one of the school's best "little" clubs under the many varied and interesting programs planned by its members and guided by its capable adviser, Miss Judith Whitney.

Many exciting programs were presented during the year. One of the highlights was a real live Spanish Christmas dinner at the Casa Jose. On the cultural and informative side El Dorado has played host to many interesting speakers from various Latin countries.

El Dorado has taken such projects as sending magazines, clothing, and other articles to La Ciudad de los Ninos in Monterrey (The Boys' Town of Mexico), and selling over $100 worth of U.N.I.C.E.F. greeting cards for the benefit of the needy.

It was somewhat of a family affair when it came to the officers of El Dorado, since the offices of president and vice-president were filled by the twins, Harold and Maryann von Ulmer. Bob Young was treasurer and Bev Popp, secretary.

The purpose of El Dorado is to promote a better understanding of our Latin neighbors and to provide a time and place for Spanish students to use their knowledge of the Spanish language.

Charm Board

Members are chosen for Charm Board by the faculty on the basis of character, co-operation, sincerity, maturity, and initiative, from each high school grade, each home economics class, and various honorary organizations.

Under the able leadership of Mrs. Betty Woolpert, adviser, and Marilee Bachman, president, the club began its activities last fall by selling "buckeye bouquets" for the Women's Juvenile Service Board.

November brought the annual style show, "Fashion Liner," sponsored by the House of Fashion. It featured all types of clothes for travel and vacation.

Charm Board provided both a skit and a booth for the school carnival in February and presented a program for the junior high including a panel discussion, a style show, and skits on dating etiquette.

On April 1 the annual "Gold Diggers" dance was held, complete with a reigning king from each grade.

Additional service projects, so important to members of Charm Board, were a party for the Old Folks Home and assisting with decorating the Home Economics Department.

Le Cercle Francais

The French Club provides an excellent opportunity for all French students to put to practical use the language which they are learning in the classroom and to have fun together at the same time.

Led by Miss Joan Jones, adviser; Charles Shimp, president; Diana Flory, first vice-president; Alice Flanagan, second vice-president; Ann Armstrong, secretary; and Tracey Hart, treasurer, Le Cercle Francais began its membership drive early in October and held meetings once a month throughout the school year. A typical meeting included French songs and games and was highlighted by a speaker, such as a member who had recently traveled in Europe or a French professor from Ohio State University.

Some of the special activities were Christmas programs held in each class, a Theatre Guignol at the school carnival, and the annual city-wide French Banquet in February at the Ohio Union.

The year's activities were brought to a close at the spring picnic with the announcement of the new officers.

Allied Youth

The purpose of Allied Youth, a national organization of high school students, is to promote fun without the use of alcoholic beverages and to educate its members on facts concerning the ill effects of alcohol.

During its third year, the Upper Arlington A. Y. Chapter sponsored a wide variety of activities for its small, but enthusiastic group. The new members were welcomed at a dinner party held on December 3 at the home of Judy Newlon.

Some of the club's social activities were a valentine party in February and a picnic in the spring. To become better acquainted with members of the successful Allied Youth chapter at North High School, Arlington's club joined them in a skating party.

At their regular meetings Allied Youth heard several guest speakers including a doctor and a policeman, who spoke on juvenile delinquency.

Mrs. Marilyn Howells again served as the club's adviser. The officers for 1956-57 were president, Ginny Roop; vice-president, Rick Durham; secretary, Catrina Fink; and treasurer, John Bieber.

Chess Club

Being a highly informal group, Chess Club placed little emphasis on strict adherence to rules governing attendance and prompt arrival at meetings. The number of people attending meetings fluctuated from meeting to meeting. Only those really interested in playing came to the meetings.

The nucleus of the club was formed by the three officers—Bob Young, president; Todd Tibbals, vice-president; and Dave Peterson, secretary-treasurer. These three attended regularly and a friendly rivalry existed among them. Other people who attended frequently were Jack Saeger and Rick von Haam.

The group met once a week and the various members played as many games as they wished. Usually after one or two matches the meeting broke up because of homework or the mental pressure, which a good game sometimes involves. All the participants had fun and if anyone would have entered the building after 7:15 p.m. on Tuesday nights, he would have heard hilarious laughter, the groans resulting from opponent's good moves, and loud victory cheers flowing from the chemistry lab where the meetings were held under Mr. Robert Cavins' supervision.

Pub Club

The aim of Publicity Club is the promotion of school spirit through posters and badges. Through its labors, this organization lends color and enthusiasm to the football and basketball seasons. Heading this active club as president was Nancy Erb. The other officers were Anne Beck, secretary; Marilee Bachman, treasurer; and Carolyn Fergus, social chairman.

Most of the work of Publicity Club centers around athletics and the application of art. In addition to making posters for every football and basketball game, Pub Club has the responsibility of decorating the halls, lockers, and football field for homecoming and painting name cards for the fathers to wear on Dad's Night. Furnishing badges on the day of some of the games is another of the club's customs.

All members of Publicity Club are chosen on the basis of their creative ability in tryouts held at the beginning of the school year. Each person wanting to be admitted makes a sample poster, which is judged for neatness, execution, and originality. Sixteen new members were admitted to Pub Club this year.

The Festo Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Donna Turner, was organized only two years ago. This past year Festo continued its many fine activities. For example, it sponsored a membership in the Columbus Gallery of Fine Arts for obtaining fine pictures on a rental basis for our library. Also, Festo was responsible for the beautiful Christmas decorations seen in the halls and in various classrooms during the holidays.

Among the many interesting projects completed during the past school year was the art exhibit, with all the art classes participating with many varieties of art work. Their most ambitious project was the printing and painting of posters for plays and programs given by the various organizations and clubs in the school.

The club met every week. One meeting was concerned with money-making projects; another provided an opportunity for the members to do craft work. The other two meetings featured a speaker or a field trip.

Under the leadership of Sue Beckemeyer, president; Judy Sharer, vice-president; Mary Sturr, secretary; Grace Manning, treasurer; and Katie Deeg, exhibit chairman, the club enjoyed a very successful year.

THEA

The first production in the new Little Theater was the Broadway smash of two seasons ago—The Ponder Heart.

This story revolves around the actions of Uncle Daniel (Alan Prebus), the rather child-like heir to "The Ponder Fortune," and Uncle Daniel's love for an empty-headed bit of fluff named Bonnie Dee, (Ellen Clifford).

When Bonnie Dee "just up and dies," a trial is held in which Uncle Daniel's asides amuse the town and causes consternation among his lawyer, DeYancey Clanahan (Martin Gear), Judge Waite (John Morral), and the district attorney (Dave Stevens).

In spite of confusing testimony by Daniel's niece, Edna Earle (Linda Lancaster), and his ex-girl friend, Teacake (Linda Lawrence) and Uncle Daniel's "confession," all's well that ends well as Uncle Daniel is acquitted and drifts off to have an ice cream cone.

The final production of this season was the Thornton Wilder classic, Our Town.

Everyone is familiar with this story of modern mankind. Its presentation on the Arlington stage during Senior Week was the highlight of the season.

Under the direction of Herbert S. Yenser, the Upper Arlington High School Senior Concert Choir this year distinguished itself with a number of significant first events. This has been its busiest year in outside appearances.

The first television program by the choir was presented over WTVN-TV, and the Christmas PTA Festival was broadcast over the radio. The choir sang for Columbus Rotary, the Downtown Lions, the Tri-Village Ministerial Association's three-hour Good Friday service, the Central Ohio Camper's Association, the Central Ohio Retired Teachers' Association, the YWCA, the Columbus Bar Association, and the dedication of the new high school on February 24.

The Senior Concert Choir received a superior rating in the district Class A contest on March 31 in Columbus. As a result of this rating, the choir had the opportunity of competing in the State Class A competition held at Wooster College.

In keeping with their tradition, the Senior Concert Choir gave their annual Christmas Festival to the community, enjoyed their Christmas luncheon in Trinity Church, and went carolling together before the holidays. The choir played a major role in the high school musical and talent production, "Broadway U. A.", on March 14, 15 and 16. The sixth annual Spring Choral Festival was presented on May 10 and 11 in the new high school gymnasium.

Working together as a complete and harmonious unit, this Senior Concert Choir is going forward through its contribution in song, through dedication to the work at hand, and with loyalty to its leadership.

ORCHESTRA

For the first time in its history, Upper Arlington's Marching Band spent an entire week at Camp Akita — a week that proved to be one of the greatest successes of the year. At the week's end the weary but extremely happy band members had created a spirit that glowed with the warmth of the evening campfire, which transformed the surrounding forest into shimmering shadows of ex-band members.

Yet, that was only the beginning. When school began each bedraggled band member would struggle out of bed braving ghastly eight o'clock rehearsals to produce inspiring shows, such as the Gershwin show featuring the Ginther version of "Rhapsody in Blue" with a trumpet solo, also "This Is Your Life," produced for the Homecoming Queen along with the traditional corsage presented by the band's gallant drum major, Bill Cook. Even more inspiring were the drum majorettes — Bonnie Huck, Betsy Eeles, Rita Hite, Sue Perry, Jane Cellio and Brenda Erwin who stole the show from the band with their new black uniforms trimmed in white.

Some of the outstanding numbers played were "Rhumba Syncopada" with its scintillating beat and "Sketches in Miniature" accompanied by illustrative paintings produced by art students of Upper Arlington.

Within the year there were also the "Bear-A-Tones," who rose to fame through their striking performance in "Broadway U. A.!" Through their horns came such famous tunes as "In the Mood," "Harlem Nocturne," and "That's Entertainment."

A bright outlook was reflected in the eyes of 46 varsity football candidates as they opened their 1956 season, August 20. The footballers, coached by Marvin Moorehead, Bob Meeder, Pete Corey, Mike Kish and Don Speakman, eagerly donned their new togs and ran through their opening drills. Arlington's first press box stood completed atop the stands and waited for the sound of the first whistle.

After three weeks of hard practice, the gridders traveled to West, previewing with the Cowboys, South and Grandview. The final scores in their two quarters of play read: U.A. 20, Grandview 0, and Arlington 0, North 7.

The Bruins opened their annual seasonal warfare by entertaining Columbus South, September 14. A dedication of the new press coop preceded the action-packed game. Rambling up and down the gridiron, but failing to dent the scoring column, the home forces fell in defeat, 7-0. Phil Wilcox, a veteran Arlington halfback, sustained a costly injury.

With a growing misery list, the Golden Bears encountered a spunky Columbus West squad on the opponents' field. Held scoreless through three rain-soaked quarters, the Bears suddenly showed a spark of life in the waning moments of play. With Bob Jencks paving the way, the team countered two fast tallies, but in vain. The Cowboys held the upper hand to defeat Coach Moorehead's boys 27-13.

The next struggle was the Bruin's initial C.B.L. venture, and they were pitted against a rebuilt Urbana squad which wanted revenge for the 48-6 shellacking dealt them in 1955. The star signal caller, Dave Locey, returned to action in this game but found the peddling rough inside the enemy's 1-yard stripe all evening. The Bears came out on the lower end of a 6-0 score as the final gun sounded.

Despite the fine performances of Jerry Wheeler and Phil Wilcox, the Golden Bears dropped their second league contest in succession to a top-ranking Mt. Vernon eleven, 41-7, October 5 on the Coventry Road field.

Breaking out of their scoring dilemma and showing a sustained offense and stone-wall defense, the Bears ran over a weak Delaware representative, 48-6, October 12 at home. From the opening kickoff the U.A. forces completely dominated the play and a bright new star, Pete Nitschke, startled the crowd with his bone-breaking slants from the fullback position. He dented the scoring column twice and served notice of better things from him in future battles.

Sudden reversal occurred when the St. Charles eleven marched onto the Arlington gridiron, October 19. Carrying a sour taste from last year's 20-19 upset loss to U.A., St. Charles was poised to change that record. They chalked-up a resounding 47-6 triumph over the outmanned Bears.

Before a wildly cheering homecoming throng, Upper Arlington trounced a favored Bexley squad 33-14, October 25. Pete Nitschke and Jack Saeger capably carried the mail and Dave Locey tossed two strikes to ends Todd Tibbals and John Humphreys for touchdowns. This victory brought the team's league ledger to two wins and two setbacks.

In their next encounter, which was a non-league affair at Grove City, the Bruins were held to a disappointing 20-20 tie by the underdog Greyhounds. Hard-hitting Pete Nitschke repeated an earlier performance by romping into paydirt for two scores. Costly fumbles and some bad breaks eliminate U.A.'s chances for a victory.

The re-charged Bears bowed out of their successful gridiron campaign by traveling south of Fifth Avenue, November 9, to engage traditional arch-rival Grandview. Captains Dave Locey and Ed Shaffer played in championship fashion of the team and spurred them forward to a 20-13 decision over the Bobcats. Upper Arlington's footballers thus ended the season in a three-way tie for the runner-up spot in the Central Buckeye League with Bexley and Urbana. Each school sported 3-2 tallies.

The Ohio State Student Union Grand Ballroom was the scene for the Fall Sports' Banquet, held November 14 to honor members of the varsity and reserve football and cross-country teams, the band and cheerleaders. Clive Rush assistant football coach at O.S.U., was the featured speaker at the evening's festivities. The various coaches and heads of the groups being honored presented their student members, and head coach Marvin Moorehead presented the football awards.

Trophies for outstanding work in various positions on the football team went to Tom Schooley, defensive backfield; Pete Nitschke, offensive backfield; Mike Jones and Todd Tibbals, best offensive linemen; and John O'Morrow, best defensive lineman. Thirty-five team members received Varsity "A" awards: 17 seniors, 12 juniors and 6 members of the sophomore Class.

As the final highlight of the banquet, Mike Miller and Mike Jones were announced as the new co-captains for the 1957 seasons. We wish them and the entire squad the very best of luck next year.

On December 18, basketball coach, Mike Kish, proudly surveyed the new gymnasium, which was ready for the Bexley and Arlington game.

C.B.L. champs! This was the proud claim of Coach Mike Kish's forces as they annexed their first league championship in basketball since 1947. Compiling a nine win, one defeat league ledger (with a 14-4 overall record), the Bear loopers suffered losses only to Columbus North, Reynoldsburg, Worthington and Mt. Vernon.

The team was built around tall Bill Cook, U.A.'s talented captain and pivotman for the past three seasons. Seniors Jack Nicklaus and Stretch Slater occupied the two forward spots on the first unit. The guards were Bob Butler and Jon Lynn, with Dave Locey filling in at many vital moments of play. Backing up this sextet were Jim Nicklaus, a senior guard; John Jenkins, junior center; Lyle Pettit, junior forward; Dale Wade and Ted Ongaro, junior guards; and Bob Jencks, a sophomore forward.

Returning with essentially the same team that captured last season's district tournament, highly rated Columbus North bested the Bruins 59 to 43 in their opener, Nov. 30. However, soon to climb on top were the Golden Bear cagers, for they swamped Delaware 90-41 in their next contest, Dec. 7. Jon Lynn and Bill Cook paced the Arlington attack, collecting 27 and 26 markers respectively.

In their second league encounter, the Bear quintet slid over a spunky Grandview team, 73-66, Dec. 14 with Cook and Lynn combining for 43 of the total 73 tallies. U.A.'s valiant effort for a last-minute victory was unsuccessful the following Friday as Worthington upset its plans 67-65. Cook, Nicklaus and Lynn led the attack, counting 23, 18 and 15 points respectively.

The spacious new gymnasium on Ridgeview Rd. was officially opened and dedicated Dec. 21 before a capacity Arlington-Bexley crowd. To set the right pattern for future squads, the Golden Bears just had to hit the winning trail. This they squarely accomplished as they effectively broke up a possession-type game and trounced the visiting Lions, 58-44. Bob Butler led the scoring attack with 19 markers, followed closely by Nicklaus with 18.

In the four-team Christmas Carnival held at Groveport Dec. 28 among Ashville, Reynoldsburg, Groveport and U.A., Arlington won its first game by a 72-49 victory over Groveport. The Bear cagers were edged out, however, 84-78 by Reynoldsburg in the championship game. This winning quintet later proved its aggregate of remarkable abilities by going on to post a 20-0 record for the season.

Returning to regular season warfare Jan. 8, Arlington defeated St. Charles 66-54 on the home hardwood. Bill Cook accounted for 23 points while Jack Nicklaus added 18. High-scoring Bill Cook pushed 29 markers through the nets on Jan. 11 at Urbana, paving the way for a 68-44 victory over the Hill-climbers.

The Upper Arlington basketballers washed away all previous Franklin County and high school scoring records when they battered Grove City Jan. 15 to the tune of 119-43. The eight Bear squadmen who hit in the double digits establishing a new record for U.A., were Butler, Cook, Lynn, Jenkins, Jack and Jim Nicklaus, Ongaro and Slater.

The hard-driving Bruins downed Mt. Vernon 71-49, Jan. 18, after piling up an early 20 to 4 advantage. Jack Nicklaus led all scorers with 23 markers, but in the following game with Huntington, W. Va., Big Bill Cook barraged the nest with 30 points to pace Arlington's ninth victory of the season. U.A. surged over the highly rated Huntington squad 99-66, Jan. 19.

The following five encounters were all decided victories for the Bears. Cook led the quintet to a 92-32 win over Delaware, Jan. 25, whereas Butler, Lynn and Slater joined with high scoring to down Grandview 90-51, Feb. 1. Arlington trounced previously undefeated Cincinnati-Wyoming 62-48 on Feb. 2, with Cook, Nicklaus and Lynn the big three. Behind Cook's 18 points against Bexley, Feb. 8, the Bruins topped the Lions 38-35, then went on to win over Urbana a week later, 49-47.

The colors of a brilliant season were dimmed somewhat when Arlington lost its first league contest of the season to Mt. Vernon, Feb. 21, in a double overtime. The scoreboard showed a two-point win, 79-77, for Richie Hoyt and his teammates. Missing setting a record for ten straight league victories by this one loss, the Bears, however, proved to all their championship quality and gave Arlington a season to be proud of.

The seniors of the squad wish to thank their coach, Mike Kish, for his excellent guidance and sincerely hope that another record and another C.B.L. championship will fall to the 1958 basketball team of U.A.

The 1957 Arlington track squad assembled for its first practice session, March 1.

The coaches, Richard Larkin and Marvin Moorehead, looked forward to a successful season. Led by Co-captains Nitschke and Schooley, this year's squad promised to be strong in the high jump, hurdling and field events. Among the promising senior candidates were Bolz, Gordon, Stone, Rix, Storz and Vickers to run in the 880 and mile events. Adams, Brown, Burns, Fitzgerald, O'Morrow, and Shaffer competed for positions in the shot and discus throws; Durham tried for a place on the pole vaulting team, Vance the high jump and hurdle events, and Wilcox the broad and high jumping events.

The 1957 schedule included an Easter vacation trip to Huntington, W. Va., the C. B. L. championship to be run on the Arlington field May 8, followed by the Arlington relays on May 14. The popular relays of this area, Ohio Wesleyan University and Marion Harding, were included as well as the annual dual and triangular meets traditionally scheduled with Metropolitan Columbus schools.

Since the yearbook goes to press before the current season in track and field sports is completed, the records and achievements of these squads are lost to the graduating classes and the many contemporaries of these boys. To meet the need for these permanent records, the following review of the 1956 season is inserted.

The 1956 team won the C. B. L. championship and the Arlington relays. They finished fifth in the Huntington relays, seventh in the Ohio Wesleyan relays, third in the Marion Harding and District meets. Nelson, Dulin, Humphreys, Collins, and Sebastian qualified for the state meet. Sebastian's shot put record of 54' 10½" established a new all Arlington achievement. Duncan, Carter, Yarnell ran the 440 and mile relay events. Haskins, Teegardin, and Dawson competed in the 880 and mile. Masters, Edwards and Joseph made up the pole vaulting team and Hittson competed regularly in the high jump.

Captain Jim Nicklaus and Coach Robert Meeder

In early March the Golden Bear gymnasium witnessed some 50 stiff and sore arms as the U.A. baseballers, led by Captain Jim Nicklaus, loosened up for the '57 season.

Nicklaus, '56 all-league choice, led a quintet of returning lettermen which included Bob Butler, John Jenkins, Darel Hull and Ted Ongaro. Jon Lynn, a capable newcomer, was expected to anchor the top-notch infield. An experienced reserve unit under Coach Pete Corey rounded out the talented Keystoners.

At the time the yearbook went to press, complete information about the team was not available.

The swatters' 17-game schedule included games with all the C.B.L. representatives, home games with Whitehall, Worthington, Hilliards and a road trip to Chillicothe and Cincinnati-Wyoming. The home games were played at the new Northam Park diamond under the skilled direction of head coach, Bob Meeder.

The well-knitted varsity and reserve units experienced a highly successful season. They express the hope that in 1958 Upper Arlington will have another team of championship proportions.

The Golden Bear swimmers clinched the City League title, the City Relays, the District Championship and won second in the state in a highly successful 1956-57 campaign. This, their second banner season under Coach Ches McPhee, was paced by 12 lettermen and a trio of fine newcomers, co-captained by Rick von Haam and Bill Reiber.

Up to city relay time, the tankers compiled an impressive 8 win, 1 loss record.

Playing a major role in the success of the Bruins were free-styler Bill Reiber, senior, and juniors Ron Jones and Art Wolfe, all undefeated in dual competition. Wolfe broke the district and state record in his specialty, the 100-yard breaststroke.

Doug Morris, Tom Norman and Steve Guthrie ably took care of the backstroke events and Bob Young, Bill Cuppy, Art Wolfe and Hank Arbaugh were impressive in the breaststroke. Bill Reiber, Rick von Haam, Pat Patton, Don Harrison, Jack Saeger and Craig Whitaker capably handled the freestyle. Ron Jones swam the individual medley, while the team of Bob Dotts, Jerry Ross and George Collins were invincible on the springboard.

Managed by Dick Carson, who was assisted by Bob Walker, the other team members were Chuck Baber, Dave Cox, Mart Gear, Jim Howe, Bob Kincaid, Pete Lincoln, Jim McGavran, Larry Minor, Joe Mullin, Pete Palleson, Myron Recob, John Storm and Jeff Yarnell.

With a number of returning lettermen and an able group of freshmen and sophomores, Coach Ches McPhee hopes for an equally successful season next year.

GOLF 1957

Confronted with a tough 19-match schedule and the loss of two of last season's state crowned foursome, Coach Bill Thomas' golf team began their '57 season, April 4.

The team's Co-captains, Jack Nicklaus and Rog Holstein, filled the first two positions on the team. Other varsity members who vied for the third and fourth spots were veterans Trent Lamb, Jack Saeger, Dick Slater, Bob Dotts, and Dan Stone. Two capable newcomers to the team were Dale Wade and Vince Cardi.

The busy ledger called for a nine match C.B.L. tournament and additional matches with teams like Hilliards, Academy, Columbus-South, and Columbus-North. As in the past, the Bears traveled to Hamilton for the Tri-State Meet in May and concluded their season with the city, district, and state meets at Sandusky, May 24 and 25.

At press time, complete information about match results and player standings were not available.

With another top-billed schedule, the '57 version of the Golden Bear tennis team took to the courts in early March. Led by co-captains Dave Peterson and Tom Sellery, the agile netters, some 20 strong, were paced by seniors Todd Tibbals, Don Gehlbach, Tom Wessels, John Kelly, Jim Sharer, Ron McHam, Harold von Ulmer and the captains. Newcomers Dave Denison and Bob Mortensen added their talents to the senior squad.

A round-robin qualifying tournament was held in early April to select the various team positions. At press time, complete information about the players was not available. Under the excellent supervision of Dave Shelby, the squad anticipated a truly great season.

Captain Bob Wandel and Coach Richard Larkin.

Cross Country

An eager and enthusiastic squad of 24 members greeted Coach Dick Larkin as the Upper Arlington Cross-Country team ran through its initial paces, September 24. The Bruin two-milers, led by Captain Bob Wandel, were hopeful for another highly successful fall season. The members of the squad were seniors Scott Bolz, Jim Gordon, John Kelly, Bob Kincaid, Pete Lincoln, Steve Rix, Jim Stecker, Ron Stone, Sig Storz, Bob Vickers, Wandel, and manager Bill Workman; juniors Larry Anthony, John Dolby, Bob Dotts, Chuck Rapp, Donn Smith, Jerry Ballard; sophomores Pete Cullman, Rick Eckler, Steve Givens, Dan Hill, Jim Gross, Jerry Mitchell and Jud Sain.

Although the Bear thinclads' season record was not too impressive, a tremendous amount of spirit was seen in the runners during their 12-meet schedule.

The highlights of the year were trips to Marietta and Marion Harding, in which junior Donn Smith ran consecutive impressive sprints over the two-mile course. Bolz, Stone, Rapp, Vickers, Smith, and Wandel were the top runners throughout the season, which had as its climax the District meet on the O. S. U. golf course, October 27.

At the fall sports banquet, held November 14 at the Ohio Student Union, Coach Larkin awarded letters to six seniors, three juniors and one sophomore. As the climax to the honor-awards ceremony, Donn Smith was announced as the captain for the 1957 campaign.

Wrestling

Sporting brand new uniforms, the Golden Bear wrestlers began their '56-'57 season Dec. 1 under the direction of Coach Ray Moyer. In its second year of varsity competition, the team enjoyed a fruitful season and showed marked improvement.

Posting a goodly number of victories in recording their 4 win - 2 loss - 1 tie regular season record, the grapplers walked over Worthington 40-8, Jan. 18. The Bear matmen who pinned their opponents were Pete Cullman, Jim Bell, Jim Stecker, Rick Eckler and Bob Vickers. The fighters also swamped a visiting Whitehall contingent 50-3, Dec. 18. This was the initial meeting in any sport of the newest C.B.L. representative and Arlington.

In the Worthington Invitational on Feb. 9, the Bruins captured sixth place behind such powerhouses as Bedford, East Liverpool and Fostoria. The three Bear grapplers who qualified for the state meet at Cleveland were Jim Bell, Rick Eckler and Bob Vickers.

Coach Moyer was assisted by Dr. David Jones, former Ohio State wrestler. The team's co-captains were Jim Stecker and Bob Vickers. Other squad members were Jim Bell, Dick Bernard, Jim Beiber, John Beiber, Scott Bolz, Jack Brown, Pete Cullman, John Dolby, Dick Eben, Rick Eckler, Tom Gere, Dan Hill, Mike Jones, John Kelly, Larry Leese, Terry McCoy, Paul Mullin, Randy Preston, Mike Sayers, Joe Skinner, Bill Smith, Tom Terry, Steve Wolfe, and Woody Woodward.

Graduating from this year's squad are seven seniors, but with the fine depth and wealth of talent displayed by the '57 team, increased success is predicted for the future. Although only two years old as a varsity sport at Arlington, the wrestling team generated as tremendous enthusiasm among its followers.

Kneeling: Captains Bob Vickers and Jim Stecker.

Miss Floa Schnell, adviser

Bev Popp, president

Sue Saeger, vice-president

CAA

Diane Deis, secretary

Anne Wear, treasurer

Heath Williams, sports chairman

Heath Williams, chairman of all the sports, co-ordinated the sports and made sure that all arrangements had been made for the various activities.

Mary Beth Lutz,
publicity chairman

The publicity chairman was responsible for making all posters and announcements for the social functions and meetings of G. A. A. This year's publicity chairman was Mary Beth Lutz.

Sibbie Siville, social chairman

Sibbie Siville, social chairman, was responsible for planning all social functions for G. A. A. She also made arrangements for the refreshments for visiting teams and for all G. A. A. meetings.

Because of the outstanding enthusiasm and interest of the individual members of the Girls' Athletic Association, this organization, under the capable direction of Miss Floa Schnell, had a very successful year. Assisting Miss Schnell in planning the program were the following officers: Bev Popp, president; Sue Saeger, vice-president; Diane Deis, secretary; and Anne Wear, treasurer.

Although facilities were not available for the hockey season, the new gym was completed in time for basketball. After the selection of the varsity and reserve teams, the girls played a total of eight games. Both teams ended with a commendable record as the reserves won six games, lost two and varsity won five, lost three. Intramural basketball was also organized with a team from each homeroom playing for the championship.

Other sports in which many girls participated included golf, tennis, swimming, and bowling. Miss Schnell hopes that more girls' sports can be added by next year.

Throughout the year the girls participated in numerous sports, hoping to obtain enough points to receive a letter at the annual banquet. Presenting letters and awards to numerous G. A. A. officers and announcing the officers for the coming year were the outstanding features of the banquet held in the spring.

Ann Sellery

HOCKEY

Because of a lack of facilities, it was impossible to have a hockey team this year, but the girls are looking forward to a very successful season next year. This year's hockey head was Ann Sellery.

Judy Grubbs

BASKETBALL

Basketball is one of the girls' most popular sports. This year 85 tried out for the basketball team and a total of 24 girls were chosen for the varsity and reserve teams. Judy Grubbs, basketball sports head, helped to arrange for the successful intramural night.

Molly Humphreys

SWIMMING

The swimming head is responsible for making the arrangements for a pool and keeping a record of all girls participating in this sport. Molly Humphreys was the head of this sport, which is becoming increasingly popular at Arlington.

BOWLING

The duties of the bowling head are to make arrangements for weekly bowling, and to keep a record of all girls participating. This year this duty was handled very efficiently by Susie Trimble.

Susie Trimble

GOLF

Roberta Simpson, sports head for golf, made all of the arrangements at the driving range and recorded the number of times each girl participated. Girls going out for golf were also given a chance to play on a golf course.

Bertie Simpson

TENNIS

The tennis head decides on definite times for practice and makes arrangements with other schools for matches. Betsy Eeles was the tennis sport head this year.

Beginning the season rather slowly, the G.A.A. basketball team rallied to win its last three games. An over-all record of three wins and four losses was held by the varsity, while the reserve team racked up a record of five wins and two losses.

A strong West team defeated U.A.'s girl netters by a score of 25 to 17 with Dianne Merriman as Arlington's leading scorer. In their second game Arlington lost to North 20 to 12 with Mary Ward carrying scoring honors. In the games with University and Grandview, U.A., was the loser by the scores of 27 to 18 and 27 to 26 respectively. Beth Lakin was the high scorer for Arlington.

Dealing a 32 to 11 defeat to Linden-McKinley, led by Beth Lakin, the team co-ordinated its plays to come up with a victory. In a return match with Linden-McKinley, Arlington won by a score of 21 to 19 with Anne Wear as high scorer.

Place — Arlington gymnasium, time — 7:30 P.M., April 4, 1957, occasion — G.A.A.'s annual intramural night.

G.A.A.'s intramural night proved to be a very enjoyable evening for both players and spectators. Each class team appeared in costume and in tip-top shape to play its best for a victory. The outcome gave the high school a new championship intramural team.

Another attraction was added this year when the women's faculty team appeared in costume to take on the hard-fighting varsity squad. Among the illustrious members of the faculty squad were Horrible Howells, Jump-Shot Jones, Worthless Winchell, Sure-Shot Schnell, and last but not least, Roaring Randall. The cheering water girls for the faculty team were Rolicking Rea and Clicking Glick.

Both the intramural and the faculty-varsity games helped to make the night an unforgettable one for both the spectators and players.

Home is where you make it

IF the job's there, and you can get it—go ahead. Nobody can stop you from crossing state lines, choosing your own job. In America you have a right to work anywhere you please. Lots of people in other countries wish they had this same freedom.

If you lived behind the Iron Curtain—or under that kind of government—you'd be expendable manpower, nothing else. You'd work where you were told to work, at any job the state said you should do. You'd have no choice. You couldn't hope for better working conditions, criticize the boss, or pick up and leave.

You know . . . it's really something, this freedom to work where you please. It's a precious heritage, part of being an American. And doesn't it give you the shudders to realize that there are people who'd like to take this right—put us all under Iron Curtain working conditions? Let's not let it happen . . .

Keep your rights, all of them, including this one. Speak up for them. Resist any movement to take them away. Don't let anyone talk down your freedom. Compare what you've got with what they've got—and keep your right to work where you choose!

The best way to protect your rights is to know them and treat them right by exercising them.
